MONDAY EVENING, MAY 22.

PULLED OVERBOARD BY A BASS.—The Hagerstown News says that Mr. T. J. Warfield, an agent op the Hagerstown branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was out fish ing in the Potomac, near Weaverton, last Wednesday, and thus describes what followed:

"The party sat there three or four hours in the cold, drizzling rain before one of them had a bire. Mr. Warfield, evidently having lost his interest in fishing, had allowed bimself to fall asleep, when a jirk, such as only a monster bass can give, pulled him overboard. It was with great difficulty that he was fished out with a long pole in time to prevent being carried over the dam, and not a moment too soon, for he was taken out in a perfectly helpless condition, and it was only through the exertions of Dr. Byrd and the free use of his tonic that he was restored to consciousness. Singular to relate Mr. Warfield never let go of his rod, but when drawn in the boat was still clutching it as a drowning man would a straw, for which he was rewarded by securing a bass that Mr. W. claims weighed four pounds and sixteen ounces."

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER will soon celbrate its centennial year. More than three quarters of a century ago it grew into lite a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia. During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own. The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itsel promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of journalism. Every year NEW FEATURES will be added.

nish daily a complete account, with superfluities only lopped away, of all the current news of the As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of

Especial attention will be devoted to present-ing, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, es-pecially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bills of local interest will be given. From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the peo-

In its Commercial columns the especial feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted. The continual favors of those who have once
